5 Effective tips to be successful at remote employees' onboarding.
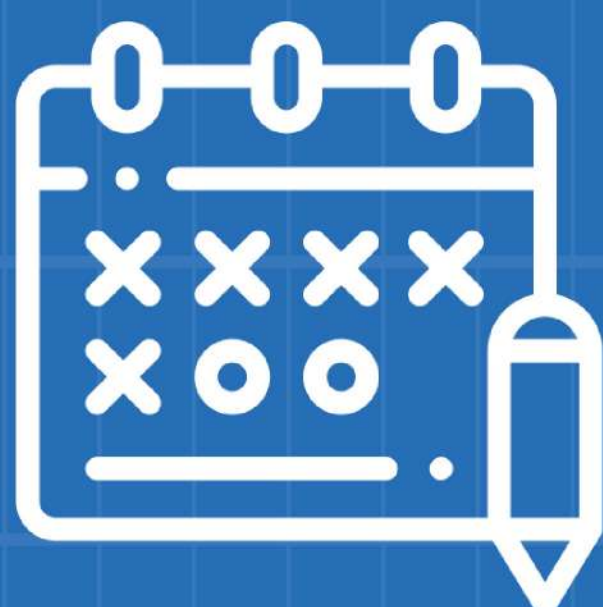

Communicate Often:

Remember, communicating more is your key to keep all nervousness, anxiety and worries at bay.

Use Technology:

Use video messages to make your employees feel connected and cared.

Schedule Meetings:

Once employees are on board, schedule their meetings with other departments like IT, sales, marketing, Etc.

Use Monthly Calls:

Amid the virtual setup, it's important to set-up virtual town halls where you introduce all new members on a monthly basis.

Have an Induction Plan:

Create a well-thought induction plan for your employees that can be divided into weeks or months.
